About ABE

Recognition

ABE Level 4, 5 and 6 qualifications are designated higher education qualifications. They are aligned to the Framework for Higher Education Qualifications (FHEQ) in England, Wales and Northern Ireland, and Quality Assurance Agency (QAA) Subject Benchmark Statements. All ABE qualifications are part of the UK Regulated Qualifications Framework (RQF).

ABE is fully regulated by Ofqual, the qualifications regulator for England. In addition to Ofqual, ABE has agreements or recognition by regulatory authorities in many other countries where we operate – check our website for more details.

ABE diplomas

Our diplomas are management focused and blend common units with more specialist subject areas, enabling you, through the learning, to develop expertise in particular disciplines as well as a strong understanding of business management in general. They represent the latest in professional standards and provide opportunities for students to develop professional behaviours. Our focus on developing practical workplace knowledge and skills alongside academic expertise, is a winning combination for ABE graduates.

ABE diplomas are valued internationally because they are:

Professional	Our qualifications are designed to give you the knowledge and skills you need to excel in a managerial career.
Affordable	ABE is a not-for-profit organisation; as such we endeavour to keep costs to a minimum. Our fast track routes to degrees are often much less expensive than traditional routes.
Recognised	In addition to respected regulatory authorities, our qualifications are recognised by colleges, universities, employers and governments around the world.
Supported	As an ABE member, you can access a wealth of resources designed to support your studies, and enhance your learning experience. Each ABE unit has its own study guide and we support our colleges with a wealth of tuition resources to help them deliver teaching to an outstanding standard.
International	For more than 40 years, learners around the world have been benefitting from ABE qualifications.
Proven	Our alumni speak for themselves – see their testimonials on our website. They work in a diverse range of industries and organisations. Many are in top jobs or running their own successful enterprises.
Flexible	You can study full time or part time at a pace that suits you. All our diplomas provide expertise in business management and offer you the option of specialising in Marketing or Human Resources alongside this.
A great route to university	ABE diplomas have credits which are accepted by universities around the world. Holders of ABE diplomas can fast track onto a degree course, meaning the cost of your education is dramatically reduced.

Why study with ABE

ABE has an outstanding history and an excellent global reputation. Our qualifications are designed to give you the best chance of achieving your full potential in your chosen career. There is a world of opportunity waiting for you, and ABE can help you seize that opportunity and succeed.

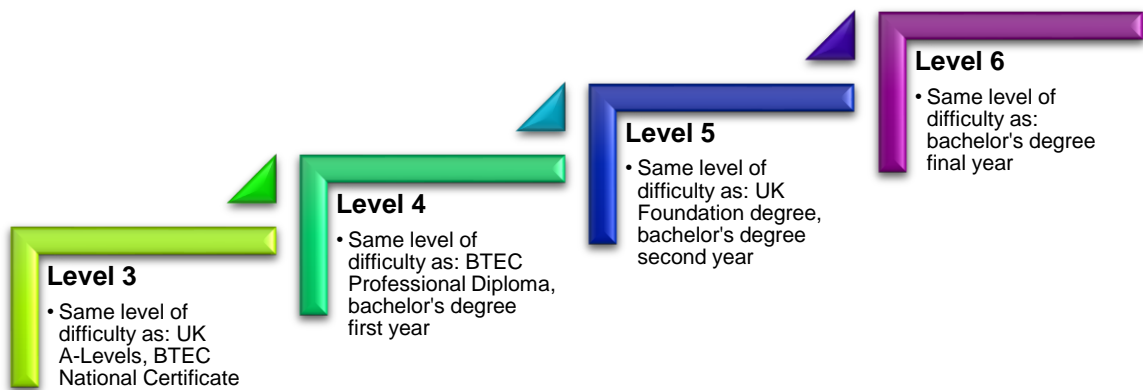

The content and format of our qualifications are the outcome of extensive research which explored the knowledge and skills employees need to possess in order for businesses to succeed. When redeveloping the new qualifications in Business, we collaborated with a wide range of students, employers, higher education providers, colleges and subject experts to ensure that the new qualifications meet their needs and expectations. Our findings highlighted that organisations require staff with a set of strong core business skills that can be flexible and adapted to diverse environments.

This research, along with consultation with employers and subject experts, has provided the backdrop for ABE’s outstanding portfolio. Our qualifications are designed to adapt and develop in line with the needs and demands of employers now and in the future.

Whether you dream of becoming an entrepreneur, getting a great job, being promoted to senior management, or if you are already in a leadership role and want to enhance your professional skill set, an ABE qualification will help you turn your plans into reality.

About your qualification

ABE is regulated by Ofqual who also manage the Regulated Qualifications Framework, which ABE diplomas are accredited against. Qualifications within the RQF must be levelled against the RQF level descriptors to ensure they are broadly similar in the knowledge and depth of understanding required to pass them. The size and the content of qualifications at the same level can vary. The diagram below shows how the levels progress.

Pathways

ABE’s framework of business management qualifications runs from Level 3, right through to Level 6. You can enter at Level 3 and progress all the way to Level 6, enabling you to accumulate the credits needed for a university top-up, or you can enter onto the framework at any point depending on your centre’s professional and academic judgement– see our ‘Entry guidance’ section for more details.

Progression

ABE qualifications have been designed with progression in mind and, after completing one of our qualifications, you can progress to employment or to a higher level of study.

ABE offers you a full framework of qualifications that have been designed for you to be able to progress right from Level 3 all the way up to Level 6. Each qualification builds from the one before, taking you from introductory units through to strategic ones.

The Level 4-6 Diplomas do not have any pre-requisites and you are free to start on the Level that best suits where you are in your learning journey and the scope of the academic requirement in each qualification. ABE recommends that you follow the learning of one qualification at a time but this is not a requirement.

The ABE Level 6 Diplomas are each worth 120 credits, making them ideal for progression to higher education (e.g. a university degree). You can also take advantage of one of our university partnerships (see website for more details on progression arrangement and exemptions).

Entry guidance and criteria

There are no formal entry requirements to study ABE Level 6 Diplomas; however, the centre should ensure that you have a reasonable expectation of success on the programme by assessing your previous qualifications and/or related work experience.

Hence, it is their responsibility to use professional and academic judgement when assisting you in making the decision at which level you should enter the ABE programmes.

In order to successfully study for an ABE qualification, you should have an appropriate level of English language skills (reading, writing, speaking and listening). For the ABE Level 6 Diplomas, ABE recommends the following standards are met:

As part of the centre accreditation process ABE asks for details around staffing and physical resource. For more information on becoming an ABE accredited centre go to: <https://www.abeuk.com/abe-accreditation>

Recognition of prior learning (RPL), accreditation of prior learning (APL), and exemptions

If you hold a qualification from either another professional body or university which is similar in content and level to the ABE Level 4, 5 or 6 qualifications, you might qualify for RPL, APL or an exemption from some ABE units.

If you wish to find out if you qualify for any exemptions before you register with us, please send us a letter or an email to admissions@abeuk.com and we will forward you a copy of the ABE Exemptions Policy and application form.

If you are already registered, you can find further information on the ABE Portal.

Localisation

It is very important when studying for your ABE qualification that you consider your local business environment and try to apply what you are learning to relevant scenarios in your local business context. Doing this will help you to put your learning into practice and use it in your professional day-to-day activities.

The nature and form of organisations varies widely. Internal factors such as ownership, business strategy, and size each play a part in defining the shape and focus of an organisation. In turn, this impacts upon the expectations and responsibilities placed on individual managers. Whilst trends in the external environment impact on organisations differently, increased globalisation and digitalisation have led to increasing competition resulting in a growing need for managers to be aware of external practices and approaches and to adopt a best fit approach.

You should take into account the following when preparing for your summative assessment:

- The structure, culture, size, vision, and mission of the organisation you are working for or basing your assessment on
- The local culture and how this impacts on employee and stakeholder expectations of a manager
- Availability of resources
- Feasibility and suitability of practices within your specific setting

QAA benchmarking

One of the key design principles of ABE qualifications is to enable progression to higher education university programmes. As well as ensuring that each qualification level offers the appropriate credit values for progression, we have also aligned the qualifications against sections of the QAA Framework. The QAA Framework applies to all degree-awarding organisations, such as universities, in England, Wales, Northern Ireland and Scotland. The framework describes the achievement represented by higher education qualifications.

The purpose of aligning ABE qualifications to the relevant sections of the QAA Framework is to show how well ABE qualifications could map to those qualifications offered at Degree-Awarding Organisations and should help support those wishing to progress to a degree programme.

In addition to this, the alignment also shows the business management skills, generic skills and attributes covered in both degree programmes and ABE qualifications; highlighting in particular the underpinning knowledge of workplace skills and competencies - that you will consider whilst studying an ABE qualification.

Please see Appendix A for the mapping detail.

Credits, Guided Learning Hours (GLH) and Total Qualification Time (TQT)

Total Qualification Time

As part of its Ofqual regulation, ABE allocates a Total Qualification Time (TQT) to each of its qualifications. TQT is the estimated total number of hours that learners will need in order to complete and achieve the qualification.

Examples of activities which can contribute to Total Qualification Time include:

- Guided Learning
- Independent and unsupervised research/learning
- Unsupervised compilation of a portfolio of work experience
- Unsupervised e-learning
- Unsupervised e-assessment
- Unsupervised coursework
- Watching a pre-recorded podcast or webinar
- Unsupervised work-based learning

Within the TQT value of each qualification, we also define the Guided Learning Hours (GLH). The GLH is the estimated total number of hours for centres to deliver a qualification to their learners. The GLH covers any activities completed under direct instruction or supervision of a lecturer/teacher/tutor etc. For example, classroom learning supervised by a teacher, live webinar or telephone tutorial, e-learning supervised by a teacher in 'real time' and all forms of assessment which take place under the immediate guidance or supervision of a lecturer/teacher/tutor.

Credits

ABE qualifications also have credits assigned to them. When you achieve a qualification with credits, you can use these credits towards progression to another qualification.

Modes of study

To study for an ABE qualification, you should be registered with an ABE Accredited Centre. For more information on finding an accredited centre, please see the ABE website.

When studying for your ABE qualification, you will most likely learn both with supervision from tutors at your centre and through your own self-study time.

Your centre is responsible for teaching ABE qualifications and they will likely use a range of delivery methods. For example, they might use:

- Classroom delivery (face to face taught time)
- Mentoring and coaching from tutors or external employers
- E-learning
- Formative assessment
- Live webinars
- Assessment support for assignment writing and revision sessions

Note: The list above is indicative; to find out more about how you will be taught, you should contact your centre.

Suggested reading and resources for the qualification

For each unit in the ABE qualifications, ABE will provide the following learning materials:

- A Study Guide in PDF format available on the ABE Portal. This Study Guide is aimed at learners and will expand on the Unit Syllabus, including case studies and examples, activities, and a glossary of terms
- Tutor Resource Packs for centres. These will contain session plans, presentations, activities and wider resources available for each unit
- A Recommended Reading List, including online resources, available on the ABE Portal

Assessment

ABE assessments are specifically designed to fit the purpose and objective of the qualification. The ABE Level 6 Diploma is assessed by a combination of open book exams and assignments, both externally set by ABE. You can find out how each unit is assessed by checking the Unit Specification in this document, or the qualification tables above.

Timed Open Book Exam

ABE sets Timed Open Book Exams in the format of an OBE question paper and template answer booklet. Sometimes a scenario is provided. Like the assignments, there is a requirement for an organisational context. Learners can find the word count for Timed OBEs clearly outlined in the brief and repeated in the template answer booklet. In addition, there is a separate guidance document outlining guide times for each Timed OBE.

Learners have two opportunities each year to submit Timed Open Book Exams. For further details please visit the assessment section of the ABE website; <https://www.abeuk.com/assessments>

All Timed OBEs are submitted by centres to ABE for marking, and results will be released by ABE on each session's specified Results Day. For more information on results release, please consult the ABE Website. Centres can find more information about submitting Timed OBEs in the Centre Delivery Guide.

Assignment

ABE sets assignments in the form of an assignment brief. Sometimes a scenario and/or templates are provided as well. An organisation context is required. Learners can find the required word count for each assignment on the front of the assignment brief. For more information on assignments, please go to the questions and answers section of the ABE website.

Learners have three opportunities per year to submit assignments. For further details please visit the assessment section of the ABE website; <https://www.abeuk.com/assessments>

All assignments submitted are marked by ABE. Results are released by ABE on each session's specified Results Day. For more information on results release, please consult ABE Website. Centres can find out more information about submitting assignments in the Centre Delivery Guide.

Marking and moderation

ABE has a broad and varied external academic team with a breadth of experience across the qualification areas and levels. Our external assessment team marks across the three assessment windows and is very familiar with ABE students and the format of ABE exams and assignments. ABE has a very robust marking and moderation process: assessments are marked and standardised by our external team, after which they go through two phases of moderation. The results are presented to the assessment board for ratification, prior to publishing.

Additional examination requirements

There are no additional examination requirements for this qualification.

Reasonable adjustments and special considerations

In the development of this qualification ABE has taken steps to ensure that there are no unnecessary barriers to achievement. For learners with particular requirements reasonable adjustments may be made in order that they can have fair assessment and demonstrate attainment. There are also arrangements for special consideration for any learner suffering illness, injury or indisposition. Full details of the reasonable adjustments and special considerations are available from the ABE Portal.

Appeals and enquiry of results

ABE has an appeals procedure that has been written in accordance with the regulatory arrangements in the Ofqual General Conditions of Recognition. Full details of this procedure, including how to make an application, are available on the ABE Portal.

You can find further information relating to ABE assessment on the Exam Regulations section of the ABE website.

Grading

In order to achieve an ABE qualification, you must demonstrate sufficient depth of study and acquisition of knowledge and skills expected for the qualification. You will need to demonstrate your achievement through the assessments set by ABE. On completion of your ABE qualification, you will be awarded an overall qualification grade based on your performance across all of your unit assessments.

The following qualification grades are available:

Results and certification

The results release date for each session is published on your Portal dashboard and on the Assessment page of the website.

If you are taking an ABE Diploma, please allow three months from the date of your results to the receipt of your certificate. Certificates are usually dispatched around six weeks after results have been published (this is to allow time for any enquiries about results or appeals). Transit times vary according to which country you are in so we say allow three months but most people won't have to wait this long.

For a fuller explanation of the process see our blog.

Unit specifications

In the second section of this document, you will find the Unit Specification for each unit included in the ABE Level 6 Diploma in Business Management and Human Resources.

The Unit Specification contains all the information you need about a particular unit, including the Credit value, Guided Learning Hours and the Unit Syllabus details. You should use the Unit Specifications to see what you will be expected to learn and what you will be expected to demonstrate in your assessments.

Here are some key terms to help you read and use the Unit Specifications:

Qualification	The qualification is the outcome of your studies and assessment, and represents your achievement.
Unit	A unit is a component of the overall qualification, focusing on a particular topic or area of study relevant to the qualification. Some units may be mandatory and some may be optional so be sure to check before starting your studies.
Total Qualification Time (TQT)	TQT is the number of notional hours which represents an estimate of the total amount of time that could reasonably be expected to be required in order for a Learner to achieve and demonstrate the achievement of the level of attainment necessary for the award of a qualification.
Guided Learning Hours (GLH)	GLH is an element of the TQT and is an estimate of the number of hours during which the learner is given specific guidance by their tutor towards the achievement of the qualification, for example: face to face teaching, e-learning, mentoring etc.
Element	An element represents a segment of learning within the unit. Each individual element has its own rationale and content.
Learning outcomes	The learning outcome lays down the expectations of the learner and defines the knowledge, understanding and/or skills they will acquire on completion of the Unit.
Assessment criteria	The assessment criteria define what a learner must know, understand or be able to do, proving that they can achieve the Learning Outcome.
Indicative content	The indicative content is the scope of knowledge required in order to fulfil the assessment requirements and achieve the learning outcome; it also outlines the technical components of the programme.
Weighting	The way in which a section of the content is emphasised in terms of teaching, learner effort, and emphasis in assessment.

Indicative Content

Comprehensive indicative content for each unit can be found in the unit syllabus on the ABE Portal.

Unit Type: Mandatory

Level: 6

Credits: 20

GLH: 50

Assessment Method: Assignment

This unit focuses upon the leadership principles required to lead an organisation and its stakeholders through strategic change. It explores key leadership models and methodologies and how these can be applied by leaders within organisations. Understanding how these principles support an organisation's current vision, values and strategic direction is an important aspect covered by this unit.

The unit then considers strategic organisational change, firstly by examining an organisation's current position in its market and environment, and then by considering drivers for organisational change and the impact of these changes. Strategic change may be a result of an organisation's decisions around its strategic direction; it might decide to focus on growth and expansion, for example. Strategic change may also be a result of changes in its business environment, for example opportunities to utilise the use of technology so that it can take advantage of innovations in that area. Strategic change can be a vehicle by which an organisation gains advantage over its competitors, through its products or services. It may use strategic change to exploit an opportunity or 'gap' in the market.

Strategic change can also be driven by internal business drivers, for example the need to improve profitability. All strategic change needs to be planned, managed, and in particular led, so this unit also explores the value of leading and influencing people through an effective change process.

Strategic change impacts on stakeholders, so this unit helps you identify and analyse organisational stakeholders and evaluates models and methodologies for engaging and collaborating with these stakeholders about the strategic change.

Finally, the unit considers the leadership skills required for leading strategic change, with a focus on the 'softer', interpersonal skills which can be particularly valuable in this process. It also explores opportunities for developing these skills and concludes by asking you to explore your own current skills in this area and to prepare and present a personal leadership development plan.

Strategy has sometimes been considered as the overall ‘direction and scope’ an organisation takes in pursuit of its goal to achieve competitive advantage. The complex and ambiguous nature of strategic development in most organisations determines a process of analysis of environmental, market predictions and organisational capability, leading to strategic option evaluation. The predicted outcomes of these will form the basis for strategic decision-making, impacting the future of the whole organisation. Anticipated results, presented with the best possible likelihood of achievement, must be justified as beneficial to the business in terms of its overall sustainability. Decision-making for strategy selection will be determined as much by the nature, leadership and culture of the organisation as well as the markets in which it operates.

This unit focuses upon the structure, process and scope of developing and evaluating appropriate business strategies in varied market and organisational contexts. The unit recognises the challenges to strategy and decision makers in the current business environments, taking into account the dynamic and contemporary issues driving strategic thinking in many organisations in pursuit of competitive advantage.

The overarching nature of strategy and decision-making in business organisations inevitably means that there are some areas of commonality between this unit and those in the rest of the programme. For example, there is a close link with Leading Strategic Change. Whilst this is beneficial as it gives a holistic view of strategic development, you should take care to note that the focus for each unit differs – thus, although you are expected to understand the principles of effecting business strategy and impact on the organisation, this unit Business Strategy and Decision-making concentrates on the process and selection of the strategy rather than its execution.

Critical thinking and analysis will be central to this unit and you will apply tools and techniques (some of which will be familiar and prerequisites in other modules), to build a range of options for both market and organisational development. Modelling and scenario building skills will be developed to support strategic decision-making, laying the foundations for strategic implementation.

This unit will develop your understanding of managerial and organisational principles through considering the role of ethics in business operations, including corporate social responsibility, sustainability and responsible management. You will examine the origins, theory and practice of these closely interconnected issues.

Business ethics are now fundamental to all aspects of business, from finance to marketing, and can demonstrate accountability to the people and environments impacted by an organisation's actions. No business is immune, and it is important that organisations are aware of the ethical issues surrounding business decisions and that employees at all levels of the organisation are familiar with the principles of ethical decision-making.

The influences of wider external pressures and developments such as globalisation, technology, demographics and shifting social expectations have all led to changes in the workplace. Workplaces are now more diverse with traditional models of working and employment giving way to more flexible forms of organisation and operation. There is an ongoing and increasing pressure for competitive edge and to maximise the value created by an organisation's employees alongside an increasing recognition of the need to protect and maintain ethical and fair working practices. A range of research evidence has demonstrated the link between effective strategic human resource management (SHRM) and organisational performance.

This unit will explore the impact of these wider changes and how this has led to debates about HR's role and contribution at a strategic level. Evidence on the contribution afforded by a strategic approach on both organisational and employee performance will be evaluated, identifying the features and benefits of adopting an aligned and focused approach. The impact of this on the role, responsibilities and a range of HR practices, including the acquisition, management and development of the human resource, will be considered.

The unit concludes with an exploration of the supporting and facilitating role played by HR in managing organisational change as well as considering wider developments and trends which are likely to shape the workplace and their implications for the role of HRM functions and strategies in the future.

An organisation is a group of people working together to achieve specific goals. The way an organisation is designed, and then the way it develops to address the challenges it faces, helps to determine whether the organisation will be successful. In this unit, the focus is on understanding the different ways that organisations design the process of organisational development and the link between this and organisational performance.

On completion of this unit, you will be able to analyse and evaluate the theoretical bases of organisational design, and decide on the appropriate design for different organisations. You will be able to reflect on the impact of the organisational design on the individual employee and report on any needs to develop and change the organisation.

You will be able to analyse and predict the need to make interventions to develop organisations. You will understand the process of identifying problems that have occurred in the design of an organisation, and solving those problems. You will be equipped with the skills required to manage change processes, and you will be able to critically reflect on the outcome of an organisation intervention resulting in change.

Furthermore, you will be able to synthesise the design and development of an organisation with the overall performance outcomes. In doing this, you will define success of the organisation and reflect on any barriers that occur in achieving that success.
